Collective Nouns

When we use a collective noun, we can use either a singular or a plural verb. The choice depends on whether we see the group as a whole or as a number of individual members.

We use a singular verb if the group acts as a single unit, and a plural verb when the members of the group act as a number of individuals.

e.g. :- 1) There was quite a large audience.

(The audience seen as a unit)

2) The audience were already clapping their hands.

(The audience seen as a group of people acting individually)

Here is a list of common collective nouns.

army	committee	orchestra
audience	crew	public
board	family	staff
band	jury	team
