

- VOCABULARY UNDERSTANDING -

1. Match the vocabulary in the box with the image they refer to (there is one that does not fit with anyone):

Natural barriers - Temperature - Pressure - Altitude - Wind - Latitude - Rain

2. Choose the correct options to make true the following definitions:

Climate: It is a set of atmospheric phenomena that characterise a place during a short/ a long period of time.

Equator: It is an imaginary line that crosses the Earth from side to side/ north to south.

Sea level: It is the reference we take to start measuring the distance and height some places are all around the world. It is related to altitude/latitude.

Temperature zones: They are areas in the Earth in which there is a main climate. They are delimited within parallels/ meridians.