RELATIVE CLAUSES

Task 1. Choose the correct relative pronoun to complete the sentences. Note that some relative pronouns may be used more than once. Then underline the two sentences where you may choose to leave out the relative pronoun.

who which whose that where when

1. In the future, I would like to work with children, _____ I'm quite good at.
2. The reason _____ I stopped taking lessons is that I was struggling to make the school payments on time.
3. The place we liked the most was Santa Teresa Beach, _____ nature is still pretty much untouched.
4. I was employed to be a data entry clerk, _____ job is to input data into a computer from forms.
5. I'll never forget the day _____ I lost my passport on the way to the airport.
6. When she got there, there were at least ten other people _____ were also applying for the job.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Task 2

Combine the following simple sentences into one sentence by using relative clauses. Remember to use correct punctuation.

1. I talked to many of my childhood friends at our high school reunion. I hadn't seen them in years.

_____

2. She likes wearing expensive clothes. Her clothes are manufactured by famous brands.

_____

3. The position would give him some work experience in management. He doesn't have any work experience in management right now.

_____

4. I used to teach French to children. The children's first language was English.

_____

5. I was asked to write an article on a complicated topic. I knew nothing about the topic.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

IELTS WRITING- RELATIVE CLAUSES

Task 3

Improve the following paragraph by adding relative clauses where appropriate.

In my opinion, the excessive use of electronic devices such as tablets and cell phones can be detrimental to children's health. The games and apps found on these devices can easily become addictive. These games and apps are mostly not educational. This often results in children spending less time on healthy physical activities. This is particularly problematic for some children. These children are overweight. In addition, the unsupervised use of electronic devices provides children with access to the internet and social media platforms. Children can be exposed to inappropriate content and online predators on these platforms.

LIVEWORKSHEETS