

1 Listen, point, and repeat.  147

|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| eat                                                                        | dream                                                                      | queen                                                                      | green                                                                      | sleep                                                                        | spoon                                                                        |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

2 Listen and chant.  148

I go to sleep and I
Dream, dream, dream.
I have a green spoon to eat
Ice cream, cream, cream.
I am the queen in my Dream, dream, dream.

3 Read the chant again. Say the words with ea, ee, sl, and sp. Write.

4 Circle the missing letters. Write.

ea ee sp sl
sl eep

ea ee sp sl
__ t

ea ee sp sl
__ oon

ea ee sp sl
gr __ n

Let's talk!

I see a green tree.