

Read the text below. For questions 1-10 choose the correct answer

The most famous Ukrainian song

What do Harry Potter and Home Alone have in common? In both films you will hear the Carol of the Bells. Created in 1916 it was introduced to audiences in 1919. But since then it has appeared in films many times. So here is our of the top-3 movies where you can hear it.

Who hasn't read A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens? (If you haven't, don't tell anyone or your literature teacher will not be happy). If you have watched the 1999 film adaption, then you surely heard this Ukrainian tune in it. Let's not how good the film is or how important the story it shows is, but if you have no plans for the evening just check it out.

A Christmas all time favourite - Home Alone is about the adventures of the main Kevin, an 8-year-old boy. Kevin's family go on holiday and forget the boy at home. Then the adventures start. Kevin almost gets into a car goes shopping and saves his house from burglars. You can hear the Carol when Kevin is running home to fight the Harry Potter movies take place in lots of different but did you hear the carol playing in any of them? You won't hear it on the Hogwarts express when the characters travel in a together. However, in Hogwarts they do Christmas and on one occasion Harry runs into the carolers. That is a little bit but what do we know about what is normal in the wizard world?