

Reading comprehension

Once there was a little mouse named Milo who liked to explore. One night, he found a pretty garden behind a bookstore. Milo loved the garden with its shiny fireflies and bright flowers. He thought it was his special place. But one night, he met a rabbit named Rosie there. Milo was surprised but happy to have a new friend. They played together every night and had lots of fun. Milo learned that even tiny creatures like him could have big adventures with good friends. So, Milo and Rosie made the garden their special place for fun and friendship.

True or False:

1. Milo was a big rabbit. _____
2. Milo found the garden during the daytime. _____
3. The garden was behind a bakery. _____
4. Milo met a rabbit named Rosie in the garden. _____
5. Milo didn't like having Rosie as a friend. _____
6. Milo and Rosie played together every morning. _____
7. Milo thought the garden was a boring place. _____
8. Milo and Rosie made the garden their special place. _____
9. The story is about a mouse named Rosie. _____
10. Milo learned that small creatures can have big adventures with friends. _____

Fill in the Blanks:

1. Milo was a little _____ named Milo.
2. Milo found the garden during the _____.
3. The garden was behind a _____.
4. Milo met a _____ named Rosie in the garden.