

1) Write the parts of the flower:

1:

2:

3:

4:

5: (male sex cells)

6:

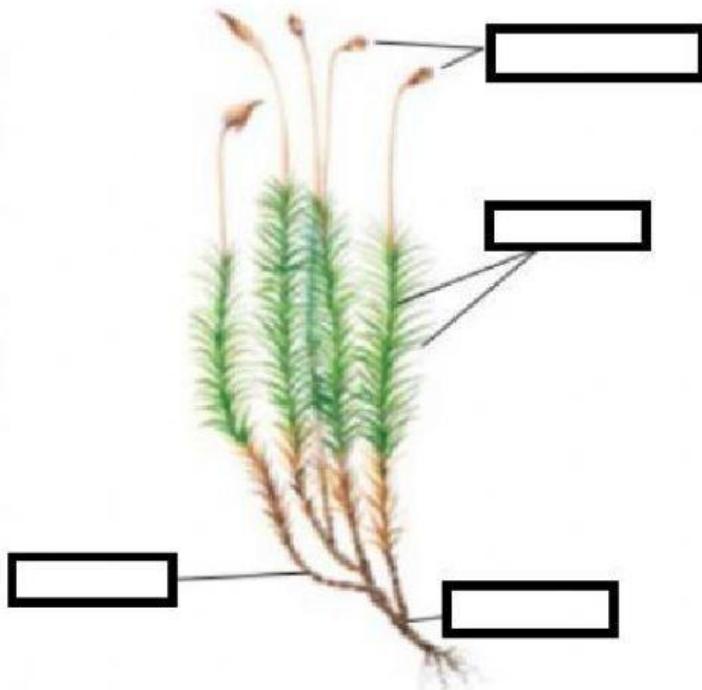

7:

8:

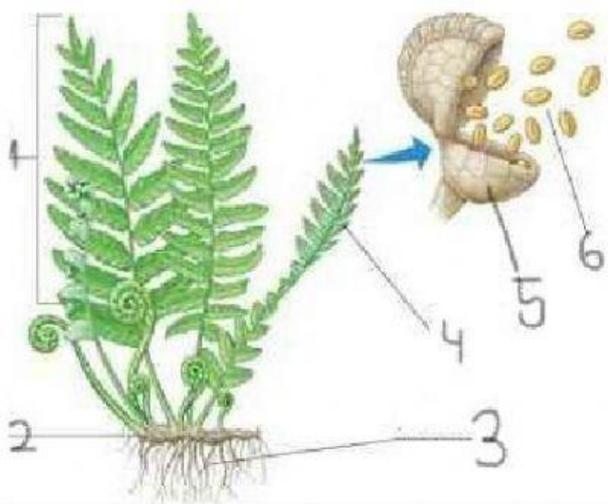

9:

10:

2) Write the parts of a moss:

3) Identify the parts of a fern:

Biology and Geology Worksheet

The plants. 1º ESO

4) Complete:

- The plant absorbs _____ from the _____, through the _____, forming the _____ that is transported by the _____ through the _____ to the _____. The plant cell has organelles called _____, which contain a substance called _____ that absorbs _____. Through the _____ of the leaves, the plant extracts _____ from the air, which joins to _____ and is transformed into _____, through a process called _____, in which the plant expels _____ into the air. The _____ carries the _____ from the _____ to the rest of the plant.
- Respiration consists of the transformation of _____ and _____ into _____ and _____, to obtain energy. Therefore, during respiration the plant takes in _____ and expels _____ through the leaves, contrary to what happens during photosynthesis.
- Photosynthesis only occurs during the _____, but _____ occurs during the day and night.