Check it out!

AmySays2:

A There's a new music video show on Channel 4 on Thursday evenings and I'm already a big fan of it! It's called MusicMe! There are lots of videos for new music and there are interviews with singers and bands. I think it's great because there are all different kinds of music. My favourite is pop but I can also learn about other kinds of music. Some of the interviews are really funny – like the one last week with One Direction! At the moment I'm watching James Bay's new video – it's really cool. And later it's Ellie Goulding and an interview with the Vamps. Amazing! Watch this show, everyone. I recommend it 100 percent.

Musicmanbart3:

B The new video show on Thursdays is SO boring! I love music and I really enjoy watching video shows, but not this one! It's always the same singers and bands, and the same music – rock and pop. Why can't we have some new faces and different music? The interview idea is good but perhaps the singers can answer questions from their fans and not questions from boring presenters. This can make the show more interesting. Today it's James Bay and Ellie Goulding again ... TV people, are you listening? We don't want yesterday's singers and music. We want tomorrow's!
