

HEALTH QUIZ 1

Name:

Year and Section:

Date:

Write your answers in all capital letters, failure to follow instructions may cause 5 points deductions in your overall scores.

IDENTIFICATION: Identify what is being described or asked in a sentence.

_____ 1. White powder that can be inhaled or injected, a powerful pain reliever.

_____ 2. Given to induced sleep, these medications may be given prior to giving anesthesia to a person undergoing a surgical procedure.

_____ 3. A substance that increase the alertness and physical strength of a person.

_____ 4. Commonly known as shabu a stimulant that commonly comes as white powder.

_____ 5. A mind altering drug that is derived from the dried leaves of the plant cannabis.

_____ 6. Substance that cause hallucinations such as hearing and seeing things that are nonexistent.

_____ 7. Substance in gas form that can be inhaled to exert effects on the body or the brain.

_____ 8. Used in medicine to relieve pain and induced sleep.

_____ 9. Previously used as a drug for intravenous anesthesia.

_____ 10. Known as poppers, formerly used to decrease the blood pressure of people with hypertension used as a recreational drug during sex.

_____ 11. Hallucinogen that gained popularity as a recreational drug in the 1960's

_____ 12. Known as rugby a type of product sealant which produces a white product with a distinct smell.

_____ 13. The need to increase the dose or frequency of intake of a substance due to a decreasing effect of the substance after a prolonged or heavy use.

_____ 14. A disorder that can be observed after a recent intake of a substance.

_____ 15. A disorder that can be observed after the discontinuation of intake of a substance.

_____ 16. Used to signify severe problems associated with substance use.

_____ 17. The oldest organization in the world that focuses on environmental activities.

_____ 18. Aim to conserve habitat sites by creating tree nurseries and empowering communities in protecting marine sites, from the word "Haring Ibon"

_____ 19. The status of health of a defined group of people and the actions and conditions that promote, protect, and preserve their health.

_____ 20. Deals with the health status of different communities.

ESSAY: Explain in 5 sentences the following laws listed below.

21-23. RA 9512.

24-25. RA 9003