Count or non count?

1. Write C for count and N for non count nouns.

apartment ___   graffiti ___   helmet ___   money ___   music ___   rubbish ___ thief ___   post box ___   trainers ___   water ___   idea ___   information ___ equipment ___   luggage ___

2. Translate the fragments in the brackets.

1. I need _____ (dwie informacje) from you.

2. I have _____ (dużo bagażu) with me for the trip we're going.

3. She has _____ (bardzo niewielu przyjaciół) because she's bossy and domineering most of the time.

4. They study medicine so I suppose they have _____ (mało czasu) for themselves.

5. (Nie ma mleka) _____ in the fridge. Buy some on your way home, please.

3. Choose the correct option/s. Sometimes more than one answer is correct.

I eat very few/a few/a little/little/much meat. I prefer fish.

Have you got much/few/many/a few/a lot of friends?

How many/a little/much/few/any experience has Fred   got in this branch of Business?

There isn't little/any/many/a few/much/enough space for everyone on the train.

Are there a lot of/a little/a few/much/many green spaces in the city center?

Is there many/a lot of/much/a little pollution where you live?

We hardly ever have much/a little/little/any time for our hobbies.