

Present Perfect Simple or Present Perfect Continuous

Choose Present Perfect Simple or Present Perfect Continuous

1. I've bought / have been buying a brand new car.
2. Have you finished / Have you been finishing eating your sandwich yet?
3. I have been cleaning / have cleaned all day and I still have work to do.
4. They've completed / have been completing the first lap of the race.
5. Now that I've been reading / have read this book, I can take it back to the library.
6. How many pages have you been writing / have you written since this morning?
7. Has the train arrived / has the train been arriving?
8. I have been reading / have read all day; yet, I am still on the first chapter.
9. Oh, no! There isn't any chocolate left in the fridge. My sister has been eating / has eaten it all.
10. How long have you known / have you been knowing Peter?
11. You really look so exhausted nowadays; you have been working / have worked too much lately.
12. I am sorry but I have lost / have been losing my key again.
13. I haven't seen / haven't been seeing you for ages.
14. I think you should take a break; you have been running / have run for a long time.