GRAMMAR

3 Put have to, don't have to or mustn't into the gaps to complete the dialogue.

- Dan: Do you <sup>0</sup> have to call the teachers 'Sir' or 'Miss' at school in your country, Mia?
- Mia: No, we <sup>1</sup> _____ say that. We call them Mr or Mrs Smith, or whatever their name is. We <sup>2</sup> _____ use their first names, though – that's rude!
- Dan: We <sup>3</sup> _____ be on time in the morning – we <sup>4</sup> _____ be late.
- Mia: What happens if you are?
- Dan: If we're late, we <sup>5</sup> _____ stay for an hour after school, when the other students finish for the day.
- Mia: What do you <sup>6</sup> _____ do?
- Dan: We <sup>7</sup> _____ do anything difficult – just some extra work or sometimes we clean up the classrooms.
- Mia: Well, you <sup>8</sup> _____ stay here talking to me then! Look! It's nearly 8.30!
- Dan: On no! Bye!

ENGLISH FOR SPEAKING

5 Complete the dialogue below by choosing the correct response (A–O) for Grandad in each gap. There are four extra responses.

Grandad's responses:

- A Do you mean I can just type something there and then all my friends see it at the same time?
- B I'm sorry, I don't get it. How can you get the video from YouTube to show them?
- C I'm not sure I get it. How can a sports team have a Facebook page?
- D I don't know what you did just then. Can you show me again?
- E What do you mean? You have to pay, don't you?
- F And how many posts are there on your Facebook page?
- G Do you mean the girl with the long black hair?
- H Why would I want to watch anything on YouTube?
- I Yes, thanks. What are you doing?
- J Now I get it. So what else can you do on it?
- K Oh right. I didn't know it was so easy. And can I read the things they write too?
- L Oh right! Now I understand. So how do I get a Facebook page?
- M Facebook? I don't use it. I think it's waste of time!
- N I see. And which picture did you put on there?
- O I see. And she explained what the photo is too in the writing there next to it.

May: Hi Grandad, are you OK?

Grandad: <sup>0</sup> /

May: I'm checking my Facebook page.

Grandad: <sup>1</sup> /

May: No it isn't! I can keep in contact with all of my friends, and it's free too.

Grandad: <sup>2</sup> /

May: No, of course not! Look! Here's a list of my friends, and they can all see whatever I write here.

Grandad: <sup>3</sup> /

May: Exactly! And that's not all! Look here... Can you see my photos? Well, they can see those as well. Do you see?

Grandad: <sup>4</sup> /

May: Yes, you can. Look! There's a post from Magda – you know, Magda in my class at school?

Grandad: <sup>5</sup> /

May: Yes, that's her. Well, look... she put this picture on there about five minutes ago.

Grandad: <sup>6</sup> /

May: You got it! And look... You know the football club I go to? Well, I get posts from them too about practice and matches and things.

Grandad: <sup>7</sup> /

May: Don't be silly! Someone at the club writes it!

Grandad: <sup>8</sup> /

May: Well, I can put a link to a video I like on YouTube so my friends can watch it too. Do you know what I mean?

Grandad: <sup>9</sup> /

May: You don't download the video. Facebook just makes a link to it so when you click here, for example, it opens the video on Facebook.

Grandad: <sup>10</sup> /

May: Well, first you need to open an account...
