The Oscars 2024

This year's winners are chosen from more than 20 nominations. This year's leaders were quite predictable with OPPENHEIMER and its actors in leading and supporting roles Cillian Murphy and Robert Downey Jr. getting the statuettes.

POOR THINGS took the best actress in a leading role (Emma Stone) and best costume design.

The public's favourite BARBIE got only one statuette for What was I made for? - an original song by Billie Eilish and Finneas O'Connell.

Ukraine had never had a winner in any of the nominations before. On March 10, during the 96th Academy Awards Ceremony Mstyslav Chernov and his 20 DAYS IN MARIUPOL received the award as the best documentary film. The whole crew including a photographer Yevhen Malolietka and a reporter Vasylysa Stepanenko were present in the Ceremony and were representatives of Ukraine. In his speech, Ukrainian director said that he wishes he didn't make this film, but he wants the truth to be shown and that cinematography will form memories that will become the history.
