TEACH-THIS.COM

Superlative Media

Change each adjective to its superlative form, e.g. the most famous. Then complete each sentence with your opinion.

Music

1. The _____ (famous) band is _____

2. The _____ (relaxing) music is _____

3. The _____ (exciting) music is _____

4. The _____ (good) singer is _____

5. The _____ (bad) pop group is _____

6. The _____ (interesting) decade for music is/was _____

7. The _____ (great) pop group in the world is _____

TV and the Internet

1. The _____ (good) TV series is _____

2. The _____ (bad) TV series at the moment is _____

3. The _____ (funny) comedy on TV is _____

4. The _____ (good) news website is _____

5. The _____ (popular) social networking website is _____

6. The _____ (popular) email is _____

7. The _____ (interesting) website is _____

Cinema

1. The _____ (good) film I've seen this year is _____

2. The _____ (bad) film I've ever seen is _____

3. The _____ (sad) film I've ever seen is _____

4. The _____ (exciting) film I've ever seen is _____

5. The _____ (talented) film director is _____

6. The _____ (attractive) actor or actress is _____

7. The _____ (good) young actor or actress is _____ Now, work in a small group of three or four. Take it in turns to tell the group your opinion, e.g. I think the most famous band is Maroon 5.

Practice agreeing or disagreeing with your group members based on what you have written.

Useful language: Agreeing – I agree. / I think so too. / That's true. / Absolutely. / Exactly.
Disagreeing – I don't think so. / I'm afraid I disagree. / I beg to differ.
Questions – Who do you think is the most famous band?