Mark the Punctuation Marks

If you want to separate the phrases and items,
(1) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ must be there to help you breathe in.

If you want to be sure that a question is asked,
just check the (2) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ if it's there at the last part.

If you want to separate the minute from the hour, a (3) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ must be visible like in 3:04.

If you want to complete a declarative sentence, make sure you will put a dot or (4) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ at the end.

If you want to show the exact lines or words uttered, apply the (5) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ at the beginning and end.

If you want to express excitement or emphasis,
an (6) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ is willing to assist.

If you want to omit a letter or two,
an (7) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ mark is ready to help you.

If you'll be able to learn all the (8) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _,
I am pretty sure that you will be smart.
