

EXERCISE 67 – SIMPLE FUTURE TENSE

Fill in the blanks with 'shall' or 'will'. Then write out each sentence.

e.g. I be twelve years old next year.
 I shall be twelve years old next year.

- I shall be in Primary Five next year.
- There will be a holiday next Tuesday.
- He will be thirty years old next June.
- She be in Primary Four next year.
- we all play football this evening?
- The baby be three months old next week.
- When you be in Singapore again?
- We visit our aunt tomorrow.

EXERCISE 68 – SIMPLE FUTURE TENSE

Put in the Simple Future tense of the verbs in brackets. Use only 'shall' or 'will'.

e.g. I (buy) another pen tomorrow.
 I shall buy another pen tomorrow.

- He will meet (meet) us there tomorrow.
- She will sing (sing) in the hall next Friday.
- We shall tell (tell) him the news tomorrow morning.
- I shall visit (visit) my uncle this week-end.
- There (be) another game next Tuesday.
- I think it (rain) in the afternoon.
- The shop (open) at eight tomorrow morning.
- I (give) you the book tomorrow.
- We (sweep) the room tomorrow afternoon.
- They (wait) at the cinema for us.

EXERCISE 69 – SIMPLE FUTURE TENSE

Make these sentences negative by putting in 'not'.

e.g. I shall be in Hong Kong tonight.
 I shall not be in Hong Kong tonight.

- I shall wait for you this evening. I shall not wait for you this morning.
- I shall bring my pet to school. I shall not bring my pet to school.
- We shall wait for him after school. We shall not wait for him after school.
- She will go to church this Sunday. She will not go to church this Sunday.
- They will do well in the examination. They will not do well in the examination.
- Susan will be able to answer the question. Susan will not be able to answer the question.
- We shall clean up the place.
- The girls will sing again tonight.
- He will write you a letter.
- My sister will be at home tonight.

EXERCISE 70 – SIMPLE FUTURE TENSE

Turn these statements into questions.

e.g. I shall tell them the news tomorrow.
 Shall I tell them the news tomorrow?

- She will do the work for you. Will she do the work for you?
- You will be there this evening. Will you be there this evening?
- We shall listen to her story. Shall we listen to her story?
- We shall buy the tickets tomorrow morning. Shall we buy the tickets tomorrow morning?
- They will remember your name. Will they remember your name?
- Pik Ling will return the book to you. Will Pik Ling return the book to you?
- I shall leave the book here.
- They will win the game this evening.
- You will be able to help us.
- We shall sweep the room later.

EXERCISE 71 – 'GOING TO'

Rewrite these sentences using 'going to' instead of 'shall' or 'will'.

e.g. He will buy a car next month.
He is going to buy a car next month.

1. She will bake a cake tomorrow. She is going to bake a cake tomorrow.
2. He will tell you the story this evening. He is going to tell the story this evening.
3. Li Yoong will bring the bag tomorrow. Li Yoong is going to bring the bag tomorrow.
4. He will return the book tomorrow morning. He is going to return the book tomorrow morning.
5. They will clean up the house next Sunday. They are going to clean up the house next Sunday.
6. The boys will finish the work next week. The boys are going to finish the work next week.
7. We shall run in the race tomorrow.
8. We shall sing this song tonight.
9. I shall wash the car tomorrow morning.
10. Look out! The tree will fall.

EXERCISE 72 – 'GOING TO'

Write out these sentences putting in the 'going to' form of the verbs in brackets.

e.g. I (write) a letter this evening.
I am going to write a letter this evening.

1. He is going to swim (swim) in the pool tomorrow.
2. She is going to make (make) a new dress this afternoon.
3. My brother (put) on that shirt tomorrow morning.
4. Swee Lan (see) her uncle next week.
5. They are going to play (play) the game next Friday.
6. We (cut) down that tree this evening.
7. They (sleep) in this room tonight.
8. The sky is dark. It (rain).
9. Be careful! The branch (break).
10. The headmaster (speak) to us tomorrow.

~The End~