

FOR AUDITORY LEARNER

Listen the monologue about the procedure text below and complete the blanks using the right answer!

In our classroom, we hold the power to nurture environment, a sanctuary where learning thrives and respect for our planet blossoms.

Every action we take, from the way we handle waste to how we use resources, shapes the world around us. By keeping our classroom from litter, we not only create a more pleasant space for everyone but also show our commitment to our shared home.

If we nurture a culture of respect for our we can ensure that our classroom remains a haven for learning and growth. we dispose of waste responsibly, recycle diligently, and conserve resources like water and electricity, we can the delicate balance of nature within our classroom walls.

If we embrace the beauty of nature, we'll understand the of safeguarding it. If we witness the magic of a blooming plant or the tranquility of a clear stream, we'll be inspired to and protect our environment with fervor.

Simple habits, like recycling paper and plastics or turning off lights when they're not needed, can make By practicing these small acts of stewardship, we demonstrate our dedication to preserving the environment for future generations.

Let's work together to keep our classroom clean and safe, for the benefit of all who inhabit it and the planet we call

FOR AUDITORY LEARNER

Please answer these following questions!

1. What is the appropriate title for the text above?
2. Why is it important to keep our classroom clean and tidy?
3. What can we do to help take care of our classroom?
4. How does seeing nature in our classroom make us want to protect the environment?
5. What are some easy things we can do to help the environment in our classroom?

Answer

- 1.....
- 2.....
- 3.....
- 4.....
- 5.....

