III. Reading

A. Read the article about FOOD.

Did you know . . . ?

We all need healthy food, and a lot of vitamins. Fruit and vegetables are important, but other things are healthy too! Don't be scared to eat things you like, sometimes.

Here's a surprise. Chocolate is good for you! Everybody knows that milk chocolate has got lots of sugar in it. But dark chocolate contains 70-80% cocoa, and doesn't have much sugar. It contains chemicals called "flavonoids" that help the body in lots of way. And stop us being ill.

Is coffee good for us? Well, it's unhealthy to drink before we go to bed! And too much coffee can make you upset. But some scientists say that drinking coffee in the morning can help us remember things. Some people also say that it's good to drink coffee before you do exercise, to help you run faster, for example.

Potatoes are a popular vegetable, but not many people think they're healthy. Fried potatoes are delicious, but often fatty. If possible, eat boiled potatoes instead. Also, did you know that the outside part of the potato, the peel, is healthy and contains lots of Vitamin C? Many people don't eat it. So next time, don't throw the peel.

Here's another surprise. You know popcorn, that delicious food you eat at the cinema? Well, it has got lots of "phytonutrients", a chemical that is in lots of other food, like tomatoes, broccoli, and other green vegetables. But be careful! Popcorn has sometimes got lots of sugar, salt or oil on it. So don't eat too much.

Read the sentences below. Mark the sentences T if true and F if False.

1. Fruit and vegetable are the only healthy food. _____
2. Dark chocolate contains chemicals called "flavonoids". _____
3. It's healthy to drink coffee before going to bed. _____
4. Potato peels contain Vitamin D. _____
5. Popcorn has got lots of "phytonutrients". _____

B. Read the article about Mahatma Gandhi

Mahatma Gandhi

Gandhi was born in 1869 in Ponbander, in the west of India. His father was a politician. Gandhi got married when he was 13 years old and had 4 sons. At the age of 18, Gandhi travelled to Britain. He studied law at a university in London, then worked in India for a few years. In 1893, he got a job as a lawyer in South Africa. At that time, black and white people in South Africa were not equal and Gandhi fought for the rights of black South Africans. In 1914, Gandhi moved back to India. The British ruled India and Indian people weren't equal. Gandhi wanted the British to leave India, and wanted India to become independent. He was a peaceful man and against all forms of violence. In the end he won and the British left India in 1947. Gandhi continued to fight for the rights of the poor people and women in India, and became a hero for millions of people. But some Hindu people hated him because he was friendly towards the Muslims in Pakistan.

On 30 January 1948, a Hindu called Godse shot Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi's birthday 2 October, is now a national holiday in India.
