But each and every are not exactly the same. Study the difference:

We use each when we think of things separately, one by one.

- Study each sentence carefully. (= study the sentences one by one)

each = X + X + X + X

Each is more usual for a small number:

- There were four books on the table. Each book was a different colour.
- (in a card game) At the beginning of the game, each player has three cards.

We use every when we think of things as a group. The meaning is similar to all.

- Every sentence must have a verb. (= all sentences in general)

every =
Every is more usual for a large number:

- Kate loves reading. She has read ev book in the library. (= all the book
- I'd like to visit every country in the world. (= all the countries)

Each (but not every) can be used for two things:

- In football, each team has eleven players. (not every team)

We use every (not each) to say how often something happens:

- 'How often do you use your car?' 'Every day.' (not Each day)
- There's a bus every ten minutes. (not each ten minutes)

Compare the structures we use with each and every:

You can use each with a noun:
each book each student

You can use each alone (without a noun):

- None of the rooms was the same. Each (= each room) was different.

Or you can use each one:

- Each one was different.

You can say each of (the … / these … / them etc.):

- Read each of these sentences carefully.
- Each of the books is a different colour.
- Each of them is a different colour.

You can use every with a noun:
every book every student

You can't use every alone, but you can say every one:

- A: Have you read all these books?
  B: Yes, every one.

You can say every one of … (but not 'ever

- I've read every one of those books. (not every of those books)
- I've read every one of them.

You can also use each in the middle or at the end of a sentence. For example:

- The students were each given a book. (= Each student was given a book.)
- These oranges cost 40 pence each.

Everyone and every one
