MY DAILY ROUTINE

Hi, my name is Mike. I'm an English teacher, so I have a very busy daily routine.

First, I get up at six o'clock every day. Then, I go to the bathroom to take a shower, get dressed and leave for work by seven-thirty. I arrive school at eight o'clock. Next, I prepare my lessons and teach until noon. I always have lunch with my colleagues in the teachers' room.

In the afternoon, I correct my students' homework and finish work at five-forty five. After I go home, I do exercise and prepare food for my kids. We eat dinner and watch some TV programmes. My son loves watching animation. We go to bed at 10 o'clock.

I'm Julia. I'm a university student.

I always get up very early, at five-thirty. I get up early because I like going jogging along the beach and watching the sun rise. Later, I go home, take a shower and get dressed. I leave home at about eight o'clock. I don't drive to school, I take a bus. Then, I have breakfast with my friends at the cafeteria. I usually have lessons from eight-fifteen in the morning to three o'clock in the afternoon.

After school, I like going to my favorite café to finish my deadlines. I go home by nine-thirty. I eat my dinner, watch news and take a hot bath. Finally, I read in bed for an hour before I fall asleep.
