

EXERCISE A

Match the advice with the bad result that could happen.

_____ 1. She had better go to work today, or	a. he won't get better.
_____ 2. He'd better take his medicine, or	b. she could lose her job.
_____ 3. They'd better obey the rules, or	c. they'll get in trouble.
_____ 4. You'd better save more money, or	d. you might get a ticket.
_____ 5. He'd better do a good job, or	e. you'll be broke soon.
_____ 6. You'd better not drive too fast, or	f. I won't pay him.

EXERCISE B

Complete the questions with why not or why don't.

1. You should have a new computer. _____ you ask the boss for one?
2. We could go out of town for the weekend. _____ we drive to the lake?
3. You should meet new people. _____ come with me to the party?
4. You should take some time off. _____ you take a vacation?
5. Sir, the workmen have finished. _____ I let them leave now?
6. Christina's in the hospital. _____ we visit her after work?
7. John, we'd like to see you. _____ come over for dinner tonight?