

ASSESSMENT READING ACTIVITY

Student's name:

Date:

1. Use numbers (1-4) to order the sentences to form a coherent paragraph.

	These artists are an example of how nature and weather can be a source of inspiration to create beautiful masterpieces.
	This artist has painted thousands of masterpieces. Some of them are in the most important museums in Europe, a few are in America. Many sources from life and nature inspired him to create his paintings.
	Salvador Dalí was a surrealist painter. He was from Spain.
	A clear example is the collection of four paintings. Dalí represented the four seasons of the year in four fantastic paintings of different landscapes. Arcimboldo is an Italian artist who painted the four seasons using different elements from the nature like, fruit, vegetables, trees, lakes, and so on.

2. Choose the correct answer, according to the previous Reading activity.

a) Where the Salvador's masterpieces are found?

- a. They are in any museums in Spain.
- b. They are in important museums in Europe.
- c. They are in his old house.
- d. None of the above

b) What Salvador represents in his paintings?

- a. He represented the four seasons of the year.
- b. He represent his feelings.
- c. He only painted for hobby.
- d. He painted his imaginations.

3. Write an X if you consider the sentence is True, False or Non-information.

SENTENCES	TRUE	FALSE	NON- INFORMATION
Salvador Dali is the most important painter in Europe and part of Spain.
Salvador Dali was a Spanish surrealist painter.
Arcimboldo is an Italian painter, he could use a banana or avocado for painting.
A source of inspiration to create paintings was cities and social problems.			