

Write each part of the respiratory system next to the correct definition.

It heats, moistens and filters the air that comes into the body.

They are spongy organs which contain millions of tiny air sacs called alveoli.

Allows the air to flow from the mouth and nose to the lungs

They are tubes which carry air from the trachea to the lungs.

It is a rigid tube which carries air to the bronchi

It is a muscle which helps the lungs to move in a way necessary for breathing

It contains the vocal cords.