Choose the correct verb form.

1. We will have paid / will be paying back the loan by December.
2. I will be / will have been here for three years next May.
3. Next year, she will be working / will have worked in our Tokio office.
4. We will be holding / will have held a meeting soon.
5. Don't phone me tomorrow because I'll be working / work on the bid all morning.
6. We will be offering / will have offered a special discount from January 1st.
7. By the end of next year, we will be launching / will have launched six new products in three years.
8. This time next year, we will be enjoying / will have enjoyed the results of the merger.

FINE&FLOW

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the second sentence in each pair so that it is similar to the first. Use the word given between (parenthesis)

1. There's a good chance that Karsten will benefit from the merger with SOC. (probably)

2. The merger will not take place. (chance)

3. Their quarterly result will worry shareholders. (bound)

4. I'm sure the number of acquisitions won't increase significantly. (definitely)

5. I don't think Komercijalna banka will make a bid. (doubt)

LIVEWORKSHEETS