Fill in the gaps with the phrasal verb in the correct form.

make up(x2)   take up   work out   bring up   put up   get over   break down

'I do get the occasional cold or other infection. You really can't avoid them in my job, but I _____ them pretty quickly and they don't usually stop me going to work.'

I want something to do in my spare time, so I've decided to _____ golf.

I was only two when my parents were killed in a road accident. I _____ by my nearest relative, my grandmother.

Some our colleagues quit last month so now we need two more people to _____ our team.

Almost everyone suffers from a sedentary lifestyle nowadays, so I _____ everyday, But I prefer eating and watching TV.

You can't even imagine how bad-tempered I was this morning when my coffee machine _____ and I couldn't have my mug of americano!

I'm going to be in Washington for two days. I was just wondering if you could _____ me _____?

If you don't like the situation, don't just _____ it. Do something to change it.

Nah! I can't follow those instructions in videos and recipes. I only _____ my own ones when I am in charge of cooking.