

Adverbs

What is an adverb? An adverb is a word that explains where, when, or in what manner something happens; they can also show the degree of something. It can modify a verb ("he sings loudly"), an adjective ("very tall"), another adverb ("ended too quickly"), or even a whole sentence ("Fortunately, I had brought an umbrella.").

Here we will focus on adverbs that describe verbs. Look at the following sentences:

John ran quickly.

Jane drove carefully.

The words quickly and carefully are adverbs. They describe how John ran and how Jane drove.

Adverbs often end in -ly, but some (such as fast, early, hard, etc.) look exactly the same as their adjective counterparts. These must be memorized.

In general, adverbs should be placed as close as possible to the words they are intended to modify.

Let's practice. Choose an adverb from the box to complete the sentences below.

seriously

impatiently

broadly

angrily

- 1) He _____ pushed her out the door.
- 2) John sang _____ in the shower.
- 3) She smiled _____ when she saw her parents.
- 4) My dog waits _____ for its food.
- 5) I will _____ consider your proposal.

Comparative and Superlative Forms. With adverbs ending in -ly, you must use more to form the comparative, and most to form the superlative.

Adverb	Comparative	Superlative	Example
quietly	more quietly	most quietly	Maria sang more quietly than John.
slowly	more slowly	most slowly	The teacher spoke more slowly to help us understand.
carefully	more carefully	most carefully	Bill drove the most carefully.

With short adverbs that do not end in -ly, the comparative and superlative forms are identical adjectives: add -er to form the comparative and -est to form the superlative.¹

hard	harder	hardest	Susan works harder than her brother.
fast	faster	fastest	Carlos ran the fastest of all.
late	later	latest	Paula arrived later than Jim.

Some adverbs have irregular comparative and superlative forms.

Adverb	Comparative	Superlative	Example
badly	worse	worst	You're driving worse today than yesterday!
far	farther/further	farthest/furthest	The little boy ran farther than his friends.
little	less	least	That was the least interesting movie I have seen.
well	better	best	He played the best of any player.

.Let's practice. Write the comparative and superlative forms of the given adverbs.

Adverb	Comparative	Superlative
clumsily
happily
late carefully
gently
hard

¹ Be very careful with the words hard and late. These words have -ly forms, but the meanings of these words is quite different: hardly means "apenas" and lately means "recien".

Write the comparative form of the word in bold.
