

There is or There are

1. Fill in the gaps with there's or there are.

- _____ seven books on the shelf.
- _____ a bag near the table.
- _____ cars between the buses.
- _____ six forks on the table.
- _____ a picture near the window.
- _____ three pens on the desk.
- _____ many toys in the box.
- _____ ten apples on the table.
- _____ a mouse behind the sofa.
- _____ many exercises in this textbook
- _____ some eggs in the fridge.
- _____ five books on the table.
- _____ a girl in the garden.
- _____ two armchairs in our living room.
- _____ a key in my bag.
- _____ a dog under the chair.
- _____ eleven football players in a team.
- _____ a witch under the table.
- _____ a lot of books in the library.
- _____ a pair of shoes under the chair.

2. Fill in the blanks with: There isn't or There aren't.

- _____ many costumes to choose from.
- _____ many girls in my class.
- _____ a princess in the room.
- _____ a carton of juice in the fridge.
- _____ eleven desks in our classroom.
- _____ a dress in the wardrobe.
- _____ any flowers in the vase.
- _____ Many vampires at this party.
- _____ two kitchens in the house.
- _____ a scary zombie in the garden.