Diagram illustrating a landscape observation task. A large central image shows a town in a valley, surrounded by green hills. Five smaller images are provided below, each corresponding to a specific feature in the main landscape, indicated by lines connecting them to empty boxes for identification.

The five smaller images are:

- Image 1: A view of the town from a distance, showing the valley and surrounding hills.
- Image 2: A view of a hill with a winding road and a cluster of houses.
- Image 3: A view of a hill with a winding road and a cluster of houses.
- Image 4: A view of a hill with a winding road and a cluster of houses.
- Image 5: A view of a hill with a winding road and a cluster of houses.
