E Reading

What is friendship?

We asked six young people for their views.

Isabel
I have a few close friends and I love spending time with them. Sometimes we go out and sometimes we just sit around and chat. If I have a problem, I can talk about it. I can tell them anything and they always tell me the truth. In my view, that's the key thing in a friendship.

Max
My best friend is very serious. I'm the opposite. I just like a laugh. I don't think it matters because even though our personalities aren't the same, we think the same. We talk, play computer games and watch videos together. Having similar interests makes a good friendship.

Yasemin
When my dad was young, his friends lived near him. These days, teenagers often meet friends on the internet. Some people think that's dangerous, but I think you should just be careful. My dad has school friends on social media, but he doesn't have friends he only made online.

Filip
I know a lot of people on social media, but there are only a few who I'd actually call friends. They are the ones who mean the most to me. We chat together, hang out, go to the shops or play video games together. I don't see some of my online friends very much at all.

Priya
My best friends are all different. Claire is always telling jokes. Dana gives us nice things as gifts. Isabel always has something fascinating to say. The one thing all my friends have in common is that they are always there for me. That's the most important quality in a good friend.

Martin
When I moved to a new city, I didn't know many people. I'm interested in acting so I joined a drama group and made friends there. I think that's the best way – to find people who have similar interests to you. For example, if you like sport, join a club or a team.
