Identify the description of each one of the following network topologies

Bus	Each network device is connected to a central hub.
Star	A single central cable to which all network devices connect.
Ring	A variation of the star topology with multiple interconnected star networks.
Tree	Each device is connected to two other devices, forming a ring for data to travel around.
Mesh	Every device is connected to every other device, allowing for high redundancy and reliability.

LIVEWORKSHEETS