Choose the describing words below to complete the poem. soothing sudden sliding bottle hot summer tickles Fizzy cold rushing Ice Cream and Fizzy Lemonade Ice cream is sliding, soft and And gives a smooth and soothing coat On days To the back of your throat. lemonade looks like water But as you unscrew the Bubbles crowd together in froth With a sound and a pop. It prickles and your nose And tingles the back of your throat That needs another soft ice cream To give it back a smooth and coat. By Stanley Cook LIVEWORKSHEETS
