

Demonstrative adjectives

1. En la siguiente lectura, elija cuál demostrativo completa la frase

Hello! My name is Juliet Smith and I am a history teacher.

I live in _____ small town. The name of it is Forestville.

I like living in _____ place because I have my family here.

_____ houses that you can see are of my parents, but I live with my husband and children in the first house.

What I like of my house is _____ big tree next to my house and all _____ flowers around my house.

_____ is my family! My husband's name is Richard and he is a pilot. He likes _____ profession and I like it too. _____ boys that you see in the picture are my sons. One is Alex and the other is Sam. Finally, we have Ann; she is 7 years old and likes playing in the garden.

Ann likes _____ picture because we look very happy and she always says:
“ _____ are my brothers, _____ is my dad and _____ is my mom”.

_____ is my class and _____ are my students.
_____ book in my hand is the history workbook and _____ notebooks on my desk are the homework of my students. I love _____ profession because I like history and I like teaching. Well, _____ is all!

2. En las siguientes conversaciones haz click y elige si es un adjetivo demostrativo o un pronombre demostrativo.

Conversation 1

Man: Is this your book?

Woman: Yes, that is my book.

Man: And is this your pencil?

Woman: No, that is not my pencil.

Man: Whose pencil is it?

Woman: I am not sure.

Conversation 2

Man: I like these jeans.

Woman: I like those too.

Man: Do you like this shirt?

Woman: No, but I like that shirt?

Man: The blue one?

Woman: No, the green one.

Man: Hmm, I don't like that color.

Woman: Really? I like it!

Conversation 3

Man: How much is this coffee maker?

Woman: That is ten dollars.

Man: And how much are these plates?

Woman: Those are five dollars each.

Man: What about these?

Woman: Those spoons are one dollar each.

Man: I'll take them all.

Woman: Sold!