

Clumsy _____(see) Gracie sinking in the bog. He can't reach the goat because there _____(is) water everywhere. But how _____(can) he help her on his own? Suddenly, he _____(get) a great idea! He _____(call) the butterfly.

And the butterfly _____(come) and _____(asked) Clumsy what he wants. The bear _____(ask) her to find Mr. Beaver to help the goat.

So she _____(fly) to the river and _____(tell) the beaver that Clumsy _____(need) his help.

After some time Clumsy _____(see) Mr. Beaver. He _____(say) that he _____(hear) Clumsy's cry for help and _____(ask) him if he _____(can) help.

Clumsy _____(ask) Mr. Beaver to make a brushwood road to save Gracie.

Mr Beaver _____(ask) about Gracie, if it _____(is) the spooky animal with yellow eyes that _____(roam) through the wood and _____(scare) animals away.

Clumsy _____(say) that she _____(is) not scary. She _____(is) the unhappiest animal in the wood. She _____(is) very useful and she _____(is) his friend.

Mr Beaver _____(is) ready to help Clumsy.

And Mr. Beaver _____(begin) making the road out of wood across to the place where the goat _____(is). But there _____(aren't) enough trees in the bog. There _____(is) only one thin tree left between the friends and the goat. And they _____(can't) reach the tree. They _____(are) upset...
