

The Olympics in 776 BCE

in Olympia in Greece and every four until 394 CE.

The First Games were a one-day event and had just one running .

The became and from about 400 BCE they took five days.

There was a on both the first day and the last day.

Some of the were , ,

and .

There were also running races, horse races, races, and wrestling