Hi. My name is Theo and I live in Australia. I think that my life is quite healthy. I never miss breakfast. I usually have cereal and juice before I go to school. I always take fruit to school because healthy snacks are important. I don't usually eat junk food. I try to do exercise to keep healthy, too. I don't usually spend much time on the computer – I prefer to play outside with my friends. At the weekend, I often go to the beach with my family. I love surfing here in Australia! My sister loves surfing, too. She's super healthy and she doesn't eat junk food or go to bed late. We don't usually go to bed late, either.
