ACTIVITY #5

1. True/False activity about the previous reading.

True/False Exercises

1. AI Ethics primarily focuses on avoiding biases in decision-making, which has no implications for minorities or underrepresented groups.
   - True / False

2. Data privacy regulations and safeguards are unnecessary for ensuring ethical AI development, especially when dealing with sensitive personal information.
   - True / False

3. The example of a deepfake video involving Mark Zuckerberg highlights the responsible use of AI content generation, preventing any potential damage.
   - True / False

4. Collaborating with policymakers and international organizations is not crucial for establishing comprehensive legal frameworks for AI ethics.
   - True / False

5. The use of facial recognition technology in criminal justice systems does not raise concerns about fairness and bias.
   - True / False