

4. Today is March 15, 2015. Complete the statements. Use the calendar and write the days, dates, months, and years.

- Yesterday was March 14. Three days ago was March _____.
The day before yesterday was _____.
- Last month was _____. Two months ago was _____.
- Last weekend was Saturday, March _____ and _____, March _____.
- One year ago was March 15, _____. The year before last year was _____.

5. Complete the conversations with was, were, wasn't, or weren't.

- A: Were you at school yesterday?
B: No, I _____. I _____ sick.
A: Oh no! What _____ wrong?
B: My temperature _____ 38 degrees! But I'm fine now.
A: Well, that's good. I'm sorry you _____ sick.
- A: There _____ two interesting movies on TV last night.
B: Two movies? What _____ they?
A: Well, the first one _____ an action movie, The Tornado. The second _____ an old comedy, Don't Be Late.
B: _____ they good?
- A: Where _____ Max yesterday? He wasn't at volleyball practice at 5:00.
B: Really? Maybe he _____ at the computer lab. There _____ a lot of homework yesterday.
A: Too bad. Actually, Jake and I _____ late for practice. We _____ at a school band meeting in the auditorium at 4:00.
B: They _____ both awesome!

6. Complete the conversations with questions using was or were.

- A: Were you late _____ for class this morning?
B: No. I wasn't late.
- A: Who were you _____ with at the mall yesterday?
B: At the mall? Oh, I was with my friend Allison.
- A: _____ last weekend?
B: Yes, there was. There was a concert on Sunday.
- A: _____ last week?
B: My parents? They were in Miami for a meeting.
- A: _____ sick on Monday?
B: My teacher? Yes, she was.
- A: _____ at the computer lab?
B: My brother? Yes. He was there between 3:00 and 4:00.
- A: _____ at Serena's house?
B: Yes, there was. The party was great.