Narrative tenses

Recognizing tenses

1 Read the story. Why is there a question mark after the title?

Brigit Larsen, from Norway, was visiting London last autumn, when she noticed a handsome young man on the Underground. He was wearing headphones and listening to music. She was too shy to talk to him, but she secretly took his photograph with her phone. She returned home but couldn't forget the young man she had seen on the Tube, so she put his photo and this message on a social media site.

Brigit Larsen

On October 8 this mystery young man was travelling on the London Underground, Victoria Line. He got off at Green Park at about 5.30 p.m.

UNDERGROUND

Brigit didn't have much hope of getting a reply. Fortunately, the message was seen by a journalist from London's City News and both message and photo were printed in the newspaper. Immediately, the young man was identified by one of his work colleagues. He was 24-year-old Theo Asher, a graphic designer from south-west London.

Theo said, 'In fact, when my friend showed me the photo, I'd already seen it.'

He had been standing on the Tube on his way to work and as usual lots of people were reading City News. He couldn't understand why they were giving him funny looks. 'Then I saw my picture!'

So, was there a happy ending? Well, that's still to be seen. Theo called Brigit and they met when she returned to London. They had their first date, a meal in Covent Garden, and they got on really well. Who knows what will happen in the future?
