Review of Grammatical Structures

Match the following grammatical structures with the corresponding examples:

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. Prepositional Phrase | A. Climate change, which has been an issue for many decades, will continue to be a problem.* |
| 2. Dependent Clause | B. Little did she know about his intentions.* |
| 3. Simple Sentence | C. We stayed indoors because it was raining, and we watched a movie.* |
| 4. Compound Sentence | D. What I need is a vacation.* |
| 5. Complex Sentence | E. Walking along the beach, she noticed a seashell.* |
| 6. Compound-Complex Sentence | F. I will study hard if I want to pass the exam with flying colors.* |
| 7. Relative Clause | G. Although I like spaghetti, ....* |
| 8. Participle Clause | H. under the table* |
| 9. Cleft Sentence | I. He runs and she sings.* |
| 10. Inversion | J. She walks to school.* |

LIVEWORKSHEETS