Listen and read the dialogue.

Diego: Hi, everyone! Listen, I'm going on summer holidays, but I don't want to spend them in my country, Spain. Any suggestions?

Edna: Hey, Diego! How about visiting Hawaii in the USA? The climate there is wonderful, the nature is beautiful, and the people are friendly.

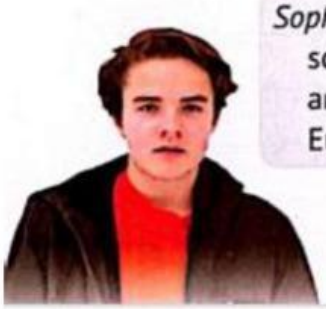

Diego: But it's so far away, and the prices there are high. Plus, I already live by the sea, so swimming and lying in the sun aren't new to me.

Malik: What about Greenland? It's the largest island in the world, but the climate there is not tropical. It's polar, which means it is cold and there's a lot of snow. You can ski, skate, snowboard or even just play snowballs.

Diego: Are you joking? It's freezing in Greenland! I'm not used to that.

Sophia: Well, in my country, Austria, the climate is mostly continental. So, it's not as hot as in tropical countries or as freezing as in the Arctic ones.

Diego: Hmmm... Sounds interesting. Is there anything to see?

Sophia: Of course! There are very many ancient buildings, sculptures and various places of interest in every town and city! We also have the Alps, the highest mountains in Europe, where you can go camping with your family.

Diego: Okay. I'll check it out. Thanks!

Sophia: You're welcome.
