

Choose the correct relative pronouns to complete the defining relative clauses.

- a. The police fined the owner of the car who / – / which was parked in front of the garage.
- b. He married a woman who / – / which he met while travelling abroad.

Combine the sentences using non-defining relative clauses.

- a. The old Bran castle attracts thousands of tourists every year. It dates back to the medieval period.

- b. Our new neighbours invited us to their housewarming party. They just moved in last month.

Now, write three sentences using sentential relative clauses, which will be corrected by your partner.
