

Choose the correct relative pronouns to complete the defining relative clauses.

a. The police fined the owner of the car who / – / which was parked in front of the garage.

b. He married a woman who / – / which he met while travelling abroad.

Combine the sentences using non-defining relative clauses.

a. The old Bran castle attracts thousands of tourists every year. It dates back to the medieval period.

b. Our new neighbours invited us to their housewarming party. They just moved in last month.

Now, write three sentences using sentential relative clauses, which will be corrected by your partner.
