

5a Think about your answers to these questions.

- 1 Clothes can sometimes tell us about a person's culture, but is it always right to make judgements about people based on how they look and what they wear? Why/Why not?
- 2 What prejudices might people make about someone ...
 - wearing a suit?
 - with grey hair?
 - who has tattoos?
 - who has piercings?

Claim-Support-Question

5b Justify your ideas in 5a. To do this, follow these instructions.

- 1 Make a claim or statement saying clearly what you think.
- 2 Support your claim. Give some logical and coherent reasons for your claim.
- 3 Think of questions or doubts that others may have about your claim and be ready to answer them.
