

TIE - SLUR - BEATS

Identify each curved as a SLUR or a TIE:

A musical staff in 4/4 time with a treble clef. It contains several musical figures:

- Two groups of four quarter notes each, each with a curved line above it. A purple arrow points from an empty box above the first curve to the second curve.
- A group of eight eighth notes with a curved line below it. A purple arrow points from an empty box below the curve to the curve.
- A group of five sixteenth notes with a curved line above it. A purple arrow points from an empty box above the curve to the curve.

 There are also empty boxes below the staff: one under the first group of quarter notes, one under the second group, one under the eighth notes, one under the sixteenth notes, and one at the end of the staff.

A TIE is a connecting the heads of notes of the pitch.

A SLUR is a that connects notes of pitch.
