

English filling gaps test

I usually English at a language school in the summer. I often can't the summer because I am so busy. So this summer, I'm not planning to work. Instead, I'm going to have a proper holiday. I'm going to buy a campervan and drive around Ireland. I'm going to visit lots of beautiful beaches and learn to surf! I'm mostly going to travel alone, but I will visit friends. One friend, Cathy, is a school teacher, so she has a long summer holiday, so hopefully, we will spend a week or two together. Another Irish friend, Joe, has a new house there, so I'll stay with him for a few days and help him paint the rooms.
