

We're going to explore popular superstitions from around the world. To do this, let's match the sentence halves (1 to 6) with (a-g).

There's an extra option.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. If you break a mirror, | a) if you knock on wood |
| 2. If you walk under a ladder, luck | b) you'll have seven years of bad |
| 3. You'll ward off bad luck | c) paint will fall on your head |
| 4. If you find a four-leaf clover, | d) if you open an umbrella indoors |
| 5. You will have bad luck | e) you will have good fortune |
| 6. If you eat gnocchi (ñoquis) on the 29th of every month | f) your marriage will fail |
| | g) you will improve your financial situation |

