

RO2 2nd Written Test - Practice

Fill in the blanks with relative pronouns (who, which, where, whose).

1. Is this the pub _____ you meet your friends?
2. I'm not one of those people _____ can eat standing up.
3. I don't like cafés _____ don't have tables.
4. Is there a place _____ we can talk privately?
5. Vera is the politician _____ sister worked for Howard.
6. The advice _____ Sam gave me was senseless.
7. Jane is the teacher _____ made me want to become a scientist.
8. Let's visit the park _____ we play after school.
9. The photo _____ took the first prize was of a farmyard.
10. This is the restaurant _____ we usually eat.
11. Do you know the family _____ house was broken into?
12. Are these the cakes _____ Helen baked?
13. Is that the shop _____ you bought your new laptop?

Join the sentences using relative pronouns.

1. A surgeon is a doctor. He operates on patients.
2. That's the film. I saw it at the cinema last week.
3. Ben won the competition. His father is a popular author.
4. Mark is very popular. He creates artwork out of rubbish.

5. My friend is taking me to the opera. Her mum is a famous singer.

6. Mr Richards lives on the corner. He is a taxi driver.

7. This is a tree. We have just planted.

8. Jonathan is a man. His dog barks all night long.

9. Peter is a young man. He helped me yesterday.

10. This is a bird. It sings next to our bedroom every morning.

11. A cheetah is a wild cat. It is the fastest mammal in the world.

12. I live in a house in Norwich. It is in East Anglia.

13. This is a woman. Her children live in the USA.

14. Mandy is a student. Her research won nice laptop.

15. We went to the restaurant. We met there yesterday.

14. This is the town. I was born there.

15. I'll show you the church. I got married there.