

IRREGULAR VERBS

1. Verbs with a unique form.
a. cut - cut - cut
2. Every form has a different letter
a. begin - began - begun
3. Past simple and past participle have the same form.
a. to buy - bought - bought
4. We change a long sound to a short sound.
a. meet - met - met
5. We will change consonants and the vowels remain the same.
a. to make - made - made
6. The infinitive adds "en, n" to form the past participle.
a. to draw - drew - drawn
7. The simple past adds "en, n" to form the past participle
a. to break - broke - broken

A. Look at the verbs and write their past forms.

go	_____	take	_____	swim	_____
drink	_____	have	_____	read	_____
eat	_____	fly	_____	come	_____
send	_____	hear	_____	write	_____

B. Match the questions with their answers.

1. What did you do last weekend?	a. I went hiking in the mountains.
2. Why did you wake up early today?	b. Yes, they made a delicious dough.
3. Did Sarah win the race?	c. No, I couldn't make it.
4. Did you go to the concert on Friday?	d. Because I had an exciting field trip.
5. Where did Lisa go for her vacation?	e. Yes, she crossed the finish line first.
6. Did Tim and Lily bake cookies?	f. She traveled to a beach in Hawaii.
7. What did she order at the restaurant?	g. She ordered a tasty chicken salad.