4. The young people below are looking for a clothes shop to go to this weekend. On the left, there are eight online reviews of clothes shops. Decide which shop would be the most suitable for the following people.

A Streetwear

This shop has all the top-of-the-range sports and leisurewear labels. The clothes aren't cheap but they're all high quality. Keep up-to-date with their latest styles by going to their website.

B Balloon

This is the place to come for great designs and low prices. There are no changing rooms, but the service is quick and helpful. They stock plenty of jeans, T-shirts and other everyday fashions, plus a range of clothes for indoor and outdoor fitness activities.

C Zizi's

This small shop specialises in clothes for larger and smaller sizes and it's especially good for sportswear. The prices are high, but the assistants are friendly and efficient. The shop doesn't have a website yet.

D Teenscape

This shop is really popular with young people looking for clothes for special events- you'll pay a bit more, but you'll look fantastic! It's a huge shop and has everything you could possibly want- including a wide selection of jewelry and shoes. You can see the full range of their products online.

E Cinders

This tiny shop is full of the most wonderful partywear- dresses for girls and smart suits for boys. There are some unusual styles, too. They're planning to launch a range of matching shoes and jewelry some time next year- check their website for details.

F Orange

A great store for shopping with pocket money. It stocks plenty of basic boys' and girls' clothes in a wide range of sizes and lengths, but the styles don't differ much from year to year. The staff are nice, and there are lots of changing rooms.

G Fanfare

If you're looking for something plain and simple for school or leisure- dresses, jeans, shirts, skirts, sportswear- you're sure to find it here. It's always crowded because the prices are so low. There aren't any changing rooms, and the queues to pay are always long- so be prepared to wait!

H Wardrobe

This shop has an interesting range of reasonably-priced girls' clothes for everyday wear, with styles that you just don't see in other stores. There are plenty of changing rooms. Look out for their lovely hand-made jewelry- especially earrings.

George has to buy some new jeans but doesn't have much money to spend. He's quite tall, so he likes to try on clothes to check that they fit.

Rosa would like a beautiful dress for her school's end-of-year party, with earrings to match. Her mother has given her quite a lot of money to spend, and she'd like to buy everything in one store.

Stefan wants to get a smart designer rugby shirt, and doesn't mind how expensive it is. He prefers to choose his clothes online before he goes to town to buy anything.

Tanya wants to buy some skirts and tops that are a bit unusual, so that she'll look different from everyone else at school. She wants to try things on in the shop to make sure they suit her.

Suzie needs to get some fairly cheap sports clothes to wear at the gym. She's in a hurry, so she doesn't want to spend too long shopping.
