Subjects

The subject of a verb is "who" or "what" the sentence is about.

Example:

Bob eats a burger.

"Bob" answers the question:

Who or What is the sentence about?

"Bob" is the subject.

Question 1

Identify the Subjects in each sentence by rewriting it in the box provided.

1.1 Jaffar drives a dune buggy.
1.2 Ahmed is not allowed to drive yet.
1.3 He is only ten years old
1.4 His uncle sometimes lets him drive when they are in the desert.
1.5 Farah is jealous because she does not get invited to drive along.

Predicates

A simple predicate is just the verb in a sentence.

Example:

Bob is happy.

Bob eats a burger.

Question 2

Identify the Simple Predicate (Verb) in each sentence by rewriting it in the box provided.

2.1. Jaffar bought his dune buggy two years ago.

2.2. It cost more than a million Dirhams.

2.3. Rawda dislikes her husband's hobby.

2.4. She fears for his safety.

2.5. Jaffar and his friends drive rather wildly on the dunes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS